

LATE NEWS IN BRIEF.

—King Humbert granted a private audience to Mr. Albert G. Forster, the United States Minister, yesterday.

—A peculiar burial took place at Milwaukee Friday. Dr. John Barlett was cremated, and then the ashes interred in the same as an ordinary body.

—Patrick Sullivan, aged 32, an employee of the Manhattan Electric Lighting Company, was killed by an electric shock in New York City yesterday.

—William A. Asplund, a young man from Brooklyn, N. Y., was taken to the Baltimore City Hospital Friday night from Perryville. He was suffering from an overdose of opium. He died yesterday.

—John S. Wise, of Virginia, who is now in New York, is disgusted with the present administration, and writes to a Republican friend in Washington that "they are a misbegotten, misbegotten, misbegotten lot."

—Disunion has arisen in the Austrian Cabinet over the draft of the reply that Count Taaffe presented to Herr Fleissner, the leader of the German party in Bohemia. It is reported that two members of the Ministry threaten to resign.

—Charles Wilson, a young truck driver, who was Friday sentenced in New York City to 20 years imprisonment for manslaughter, in shooting his wife, Louise, in a fit of jealousy, attempted suicide yesterday morning in the Tombs prison by taking poison. The prompt use of a stomach pump saved his life.

—A report has been received at Washington that Representative-elect Shipley, of Guthrie county, Iowa, is in a critical condition at his home near Yale, from the results of the bites he received in his recent difficulty with W. L. Edwards, and is not expected to live more than a few hours. The grand jury of Guthrie county has returned an indictment against Edwards.

—Three prominent Mexicans, supposed to be ring-leaders of the White Caps and fence cutters, in New Mexico, have been arrested at Las Vegas, making seven men in all, and 13 are yet to be arrested for murder and other crimes. The Sheriff has the names of 36 residents of San Miguel county, who are likely to be arrested for complicity in these and troubles.

—The Compagnia Mercantile, a small local company in Para, trading in rubber, has petitioned the authorities of the Provisional Government in Para for an order compelling all other rubber houses in Para to pay to the Government, for the credit of the Compagnia Mercantile, the sum of 20 reals (three-eighths of a cent) for every pound of rubber bought or such house, the object being to raise the price of rubber.

KAUFMANN'S GRAND OPENING

MONDAY AND TUESDAY, DEC. 16 AND 17

The formal Grand Opening of our greatly enlarged, extended, improved and remodeled Business Block will take place to-morrow and Tuesday, and we propose to make it
ONE OF THE GREATEST EVENTS IN THE COMMERCIAL ANNALS OF THIS STATE.
The entire Mammoth Building has been transformed into one vast Bower of Beauty. Every floor and department gorgeously decorated and brilliantly illuminated. Miles of Foliage. Mountains of Plants. Millions of Flowers. Milky way of Gas and Electric Lights. It will be a sight of Regal Splendor and one worth journeying a hundred miles to see.

TWO GRAND PROMENADE CONCERTS
(BY THE CATHEDRAL BAND)

To-Morrow and Tuesday Nights, 7 till 10:30

No jubilee without music. We have engaged the celebrated Cathedral Band for this occasion and they've promised us to do their best. So look out for an exceptionally fine aural treat.
The programmes for the two nights concerts are here appended:

- MONDAY NIGHT:
1. Concert March...Kiesler.
 2. Overture...Ten Minutes with the Minstrels...Bowron.
 3. Selection...Yeoman of the Guard...Sullivan.

BRING THE CHILDREN!

The children—bless the children. We want to see 'em all on our two Grand Opening days, to-morrow and Tuesday. The royal treat we have prepared for them will delight and amuse them beyond expression.

ROYAL ITALIAN MARIONETTE THEATER

A genuine Royal Italian Fantoccini or Puppet Show in full operation in our corner window.

HERE'S THE PROGRAMME:

First act—The great Blondin dancing on Tight Rope.
Second act—Mysterious Turk, forming eight different figures in full view of the audience.
Third act—Ball Tossing, performing marvelous feats.
Fourth act—Franco, balancing pole on his feet.
Fifth act—Phenomenal Chair Equilibrist.
Sixth act—Wonderful Animated Skeleton.
Eighth act—Funny Pantomimes of Humpty Dumpty and old Kris Kingle; introduction of side-splitting clown antics and attitudes, including the stealing of sausage from the butcher shop and ending the show with a general break-up with donkey and cart.
Six complete performances will be given daily, as follows: At 9:30 and 11 A. M.; at 2, 4, 7:30 and 9 P. M.

SANTA CLAUS' POP CORN BAKERY.

Knowing the weakness of the average little or big Boy and Girl for Pop Corn, good old Kris Kingle has brought his own Bakery from the far-off land of ice and snow to Kaufmanns' Grand Depot, where, commencing to-morrow morning, he will "sail in" like a good fellow and turn out thousands of the delicious balls, which he will present to all the children who, accompanied by their parents, will visit him at Kaufmanns'.
Right on the first floor (to spare the children any climbing of stairs) Santa Claus has erected his Pop Corn bakery. And what a quaint, queer and unique affair it is. Be sure and see it, for it's a sight beautiful beyond description. And don't walk out without getting

A BIG, DELICIOUS POP CORN BALL.

GRAND SOUVENIRS FOR ALL.
Every person visiting us during our two Grand Opening Days, to-morrow and Tuesday, will be presented with a beautiful keepsake.

KAUFMANN'S

FIFTH AVENUE and SMITHFIELD STREET.

OUR GRAND HOLIDAY SALE

will go on serenely during these two Opening Days, and we have seen to it that the bargains will be greater and grander than ever before. During this auspicious occasion, when tens of thousands of people will visit our establishment, we shall demonstrate our superiority over all competition, beyond a vestige of a doubt.

Solid columns, battalions and regiments of startling and surprising will march forward! forward! forward! from every department and fairly overwhelm the armies of visitors and buyers.

We have almost doubled our usual force of salesmen, and are in a position to guarantee prompt attention to everybody.

Come on, then, residents, citizens, patrons, friends. You're welcome, thrice welcome, to attend this glorious event.

No goods will be sold during the concerts, to-morrow and Tuesday nights.
